I am not a librarian, but…

Edinburgh Napier
UNIVERSITY

… I've done a few library-facing things

- 2014-15: member of CILIP/ARA Workforce Mapping team

- 2018: RIVAL pilot event

- 2019-2021: RIVAL events 1-4

… but my first research love is ## computing in hyperlocal democracy

- 2012: survey of community council online presences

- 2014: community council location finder

- 2014: survey of community council online presences

- 2014: hyperlocal engagement

- 2015-2016: digiCC workshops

- 2018-2020: information literacy for digital engagement

- 2022: survey of community council online presences
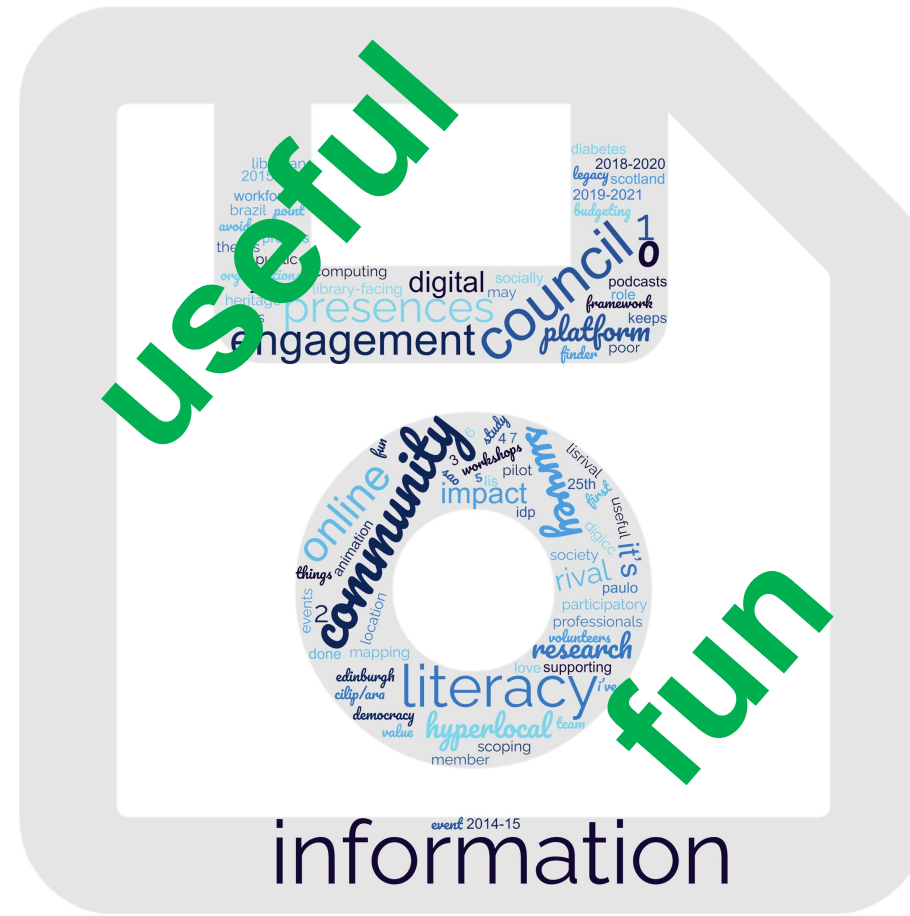

… and there's more!

- 2019: The role of participatory budgeting in supporting the very poor in Sao Paulo, Brazil

- 2020: information avoidance and diabetes

- 2020: public engagement and information literacy

- 2020-21: Information professionals and volunteers as 'digital proxies'

- 2021: Information Literacy Impact Framework

- 2022: Animation and games legacy of Scotland

- 2022: Platform to Platform – and – Heritage Organisations and Podcasts – Scoping Study

- 2023: Information literacy and society

- 2023: Careers information literacy podcasts

- 2023: Dialogue in participatory budgeting

... and I might be an information professional

- Minutes secretary, IT support and web-weaver for three Edinburgh community councils:
    - Leith Central
    - Leith Harbour & Newhaven
    - New Town & Broughton

- Minutes secretary for meetings of 'Community Councils Together on Trams' with the 'Trams to Newhaven' team

- 'digital proxy' for family members

… and the point is

Thank you!

- Email: b.ryan@napier.ac.uk
- Twitter: @bruce_research

- Web: napier-repository.worktribe.com/person/110770/bruce-ryan
- Web: bruceryan.info

- CCs: www.leithcentralcc.co.uk, www.lhncc.org.uk, www.ntbcc.org.uk
- PB: www.leithchooses.net

Research, Impact, Value & LIS - #lisrival - Edinburgh – 25th May 2023